Guidelines for criteria for the nomination of candidates for Distinguished Membership

Guidelines for election of a Distinguished Member

1. Nominations accompanied by an outline of the reasons supporting Distinguished Membership will be submitted to the Board by a nominator and a seconder, who are current full members of Positive Life NSW
2. The case may be supported by testimonials if considered appropriate.
3. Nominees must be HIV Positive residents of NSW.
3. Upon acceptance by the Board of Positive Life NSW that the nominee has contributed outstanding service, all accepted nominations will be presented to the next Annual General Meeting for voting by members, where a majority will apply.
4. The deadline for nominations will be the same as that for Board nominations.
5. Notice of nominations will be included in AGM papers distributed to members 14 days prior to the meeting

Evidence of outstanding service will be:

1. Longstanding and/or outstanding service to people with HIV
2. Details of outstanding positive contribution to the needs, health, rights or wellbeing of people with HIV

Promotion

1. The call for nominations will be promoted to members, through networks and in Sydney Star Observer.
